For Immediate Release:

October 11, 2023

Media is invited to join teachers, parents, students and other concerned citizens for a mini rally in Moose Jaw, calling on the Government of Saskatchewan to provide adequate funding and support for publicly funded schools. Saskatchewan Teachers' Federation Vice-President Nathan Bromm will join the rally to help call attention to government's refusal to acknowledge the growing crisis in Saskatchewan schools after nearly a decade of underfunding and cuts to services.
