

Supporting the Principalship

INFORMATION FOR TEACHERS | SEPTEMBER 2019

The Saskatchewan Teachers' Federation is committed to enhancing the provision of direct supports for principals.

The Federation has a designated senior administrative staff member to support principals. This senior administrative staff member will support principals in discussing issues and opportunities within their specialized roles and assist principals in balancing management and instructional leadership.

The Saskatchewan Teachers' Federation has a long history of supporting the principalship in Saskatchewan schools. The Federation is keenly aware of the importance of the principal's role in establishing a successful climate for effective teaching and learning.

Did You Know?
