

THE WELLBEING OF SASKATCHEWAN SCHOOL ADMINISTRATORS

Phase II: Survey coming
May 2023!

RECAP: PHASE I

University of Regina and the Saskatchewan Teachers' Federation utilized focus groups to examine Saskatchewan administrators' work during the pandemic. The findings illuminated the intensification of unprecedented work among school administrators due to COVID-19, and pointed to high levels of stress and fatigue being experienced by school leaders.

UPCOMING: PHASE II

Drs. Donna Swapp and Pamela Osmond-Johnson, in collaboration with the STF, will explore Saskatchewan school administrators' wellbeing and supports for thriving leadership. Watch for an email late May from the STF inviting participation!
